

Reach broad audience through the common language and shared values of fandom.

Co-construct community spaces with pluralist values.

Provide accessible activism and leadership training so that fans feel empowered to...

Participate in progressive action to advocate for community's values within broader society.

Community + Training + Participation shifts attitudes further left.

Which produces well-trained, empowered activists.

Who can continue to work as decentralized organizers within and beyond the community.

Creating a more equitable future for all.